The screenshot displays the CoPilot interface. On the left, a sidebar shows deal details for a sales call. The deal type is 'Sales', source is 'Call', and it was routed to '+1'. The furniture type is 'Sectional sofa with sleeper function', material is 'Spill-resistant', and delivery date is 'December 11th at 2 p.m.'. The responsible person is Stacy Smith, Head of Sales. A comment from CoPilot summarizes the deal details, including a 10% discount and a total price of $900. On the right, a 'Phone call transcript' window is open, showing a conversation between a customer and a sales representative. The transcript includes a play button, a progress bar, and a volume control icon. The text of the transcript is as follows:

Good morning. Thank you for calling our furniture store. How can I assist you today?
Good morning. I'm looking to buy a new sofa for my living room.
Of course. I'm here to help. What size of sofa are you looking for and what material would you prefer it to be? I need a large one because I have two children. It should also be made of a material that's resistant to spills since my kids are really messy.
Got you. Would you like the sofa to be a sectional or a regular one?
And should it have a sleeping function? Yeah, I would prefer a sectional sofa.
As for the sleeper function, that would be great because we often have guests staying over.
Great. I have a few options that meet your requirements. But let me tell you about a special offer that we have. We currently have a 10% discount on one model that will be just perfect for you. That sounds fantastic. Price is important to me. Also, when can I expect the sofa to be delivered? I need it by December 13th. I will check the availability and delivery schedule for you. Just give me a moment, please. Yes, we can arrange the delivery for December 11th at 2 p.m. Perfect. I'm happy with that. Can you also confirm the total price for me?
Absolutely. The total price with the 10% discount applied is $900 and 0 cents.
That sounds great. I'm ready to make the purchase. Wonderful. I will process your order, send you a payment link, and then arrange the delivery for December 11th at noon. Thank you for choosing

Everything you need to get work done

Project management

- Kanban board
- Gantt chart
- Workgroups & projects
- Checklists & subtasks
- Task time tracking
- Task automation
- Task templates
- API & integrations

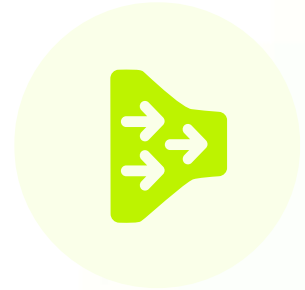

The image displays the Bitrix 24 project management software interface. The desktop view features a Kanban board with columns for task deadlines: 'Overdue (2)', 'Due today (3)', 'Due this week (3)', and 'Due next week (4)'. Tasks are represented as cards with titles, assignees, and due dates. A mobile app interface is overlaid on the left, showing a task titled 'Summer Sale' with details such as 'Created by Samantha Simpson', 'Assignee Samantha Simpson', 'June 7 at 7:00 pm', and a checklist with 0 out of 5 items completed. The mobile app also shows a project 'Advertising and PR' and participants.

Scrum

- Scrum roles
- Backlog
- Tasks and Epics
- Definition of Done
- Built-in chats and online meetings

A screenshot of the Bitrix 24 Scrum project interface. The top navigation bar shows 'Bitrix 24', a search bar, the time '6:11 PM', and the user 'Dalien Ross'. The main content area is titled 'Special marketing campaigns' and includes tabs for 'Tasks', 'Feed', 'Calendar', 'Drive', and 'More'. Below this is a 'SCRUM project' section with a 'CREATE' button and a search bar. The interface is divided into several panels: a 'Backlog' panel on the left with tasks like 'Campaign launch' and 'Concept of the campaign development'; a 'Campaign development' panel on the right with tasks like 'Proofreading' and 'Site creation'; a 'Quality control' panel with tasks like 'Final check' and 'Internal testing'; and a 'Completed' panel at the bottom showing 'Completed sprints- 2' and 'Average: 3 Tasks, 10 Story points, 100% Completed'. A 'Start a new sprint' button is also visible.

Flows

- Great for identifying and removing bottlenecks
- Increased work efficiency
- Track task status in real-time
- Improved workload management
- Ideal way of organizing tasks for departments like legal, accounting, marketing, etc.
- AI-based flow analysis and recommendations

The image displays the Bitrix 24 Flows interface. The desktop view shows a dashboard with a search bar, navigation tabs (Tasks, Projects, Flows, Scrum, Efficiency, Recycle Bin), and a list of flows. The mobile view shows a similar interface with a 'Tasks and Projects' header and a list of flows for Accounting, Office Management, and Motion Design.

Sure! Here are five ideas for a Holiday Sale:

1. Bundle Deals: Offer special discounts on bundled products or services that are popular during the holiday season. For example, you can create gift sets or package deals that include multiple items at a discounted price.
2. Limited-Time Offers: Create a sense of urgency by offering time-limited deals. This can include flash sales, daily deals, or countdown promotions. Encourage customers to take advantage of the sale before it ends.
3. Gift with Purchase: Provide a free gift or bonus item with every purchase made during the holiday sale. This can incentivize customers to buy more and increase their overall satisfaction with their purchase.
4. Exclusive Discounts for Loyalty Members: Reward your loyal customers by offering exclusive discounts or early access to the holiday sale. This can help build customer loyalty and encourage repeat purchases.
5. Social Media Contests: Engage your audience on social media by running contests or giveaways. Ask customers to share their holiday shopping experiences or create user-generated content related to your brand. Offer prizes or discounts to winners, which can generate buzz and attract new customers.

Remember to tailor these ideas to your specific business and target audience. Happy planning for your Holiday Sale!
